

145

2020

Study Title

Deferrals for underlying medical conditions

Study Description

Deferrals for underlying medical conditions vary between different blood centres, and are often based on medical judgment rather than actual data. The aim of this study is to compare donor health assessment questionnaires and deferral criteria for various medical conditions, and review underlying evidence to support criteria.

Study Status

Completed

Publication Number

153

Teams

DS

Study Leaders

Goldman
